

The National Film and Video Foundation (NFVF), an agency of the Department of Sport, Arts and Culture (DSAC), ensures the equitable growth of South Africa's film and video industry. The NFVF provides funding for the development, production, marketing, and distribution of films and the training and development of filmmakers. Additionally, the NFVF commissions research and produces industry statistics, offering valuable insights to the public and stakeholders about the South African film industry.

RE-ADVERTISEMENT

To enhance its operational excellence and deliver on its mandate, the NFVF invites applications for the following position:

Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

5 Year Fixed-Term Contract based in Johannesburg

Job Ref No: RECR/CEO/07/24/2025

Remuneration: R1 949 480.00 - R2 288 200.00 per annum

Position Overview: The Chief Executive Officer will lead the NFVF's strategic growth and operational delivery, ensuring its mandate is achieved with efficiency and impact. Reporting directly to the Chairperson of the NFVF Council, the CEO will provide visionary leadership while building a high-performing and collaborative organizational culture.

Interested applicants should visit the website of the National Film and Video Foundation at <https://www.nfvf.co.za/careers/> for further details on to how to apply for the position.

Closing Date: 24 July 2025 at 16h00.

No late applications will be accepted.